

Psalms

Tim Kelly

1 Why do the heath - en rage?
3 They say, Let's break a - way
5 And then the Lord shall speak,
8 Ask me and I shall give Thee
10 O kings: be wise, con - sid - er,
12 So kiss the Son, ye sin - ners,

Why do they plot in vain?
Their bands that hold us tight;
With an - ger in His voice;
The heath - en for Thine own.
And there - fore un - der - stand;
Lest an - gry He shall be;
2 The earth - ly kings they
And cast a - way their
And vex them in His
And give Thee all the O be in - struct - ed
And ye shall per - ish set them - selves and join in with those who reign;

cords and chains with all of our strength and might.
right - eous wrath, be - cause of their e - vil choice.
earth and land that man - kind has ev - er known.
and re - proved, all ye who do judge the land.
from the way, when His wrath shall burn in - deed.

Palm 2

A - gainst the Lord of heav - en, A - gainst His on - ly
But He that sits in heav - en, The Lord who dwells on Yet I've set up on Zi - on My king for all to Thou shalt break them a - sun - der, With ir - on rod that Serve ye the LORD, Je - ho - vah; Serve ye the Lord with Bles - sed are all the sin - ners Who trust the Hol - y

Son, A - gainst the LORD, Je - ho - vah God, and high, Shall have them all in de - ri - sion, and shall see. I will de - clare, Thou art my own Son; This day; And dash them all in - to piec - es like a fear. Re - joice in Him with tremb - ling hearts, be - One; For those who put all their trust in Him, are